The Third Annual Show Still in Progress There are some fine birds on exhibition at the New Mexico Poultry association's show in the old Columbus Cafe, and our citizens should turn out and -ee them.

The stock is worth seeing, and the association merits substantial encouragement, because of its untiring efforts to improve this branch of stock in the territory. THE CITIZES hopes that our peo-ple will respond liberally to the associa-tion's invitation to attend the exhibition. Up to the hour of going to press the following awards have been made: C. Lowenberg, of Pena Blanca, fürst prize on barred Plymonth Rock pullet and on breeding pen.

On Barred Plymouth Rock cockerel and hen, Mr. Lowenberg ties with A. F Overman, of Albuquerque. F. G. Tompkins, of Topeka, takes first prize on white Plymouth Rocks.

Mrs. Fred H. Nichols and C. A. Whitehead tie on Black Minorca pullet. C. A. Whitehead, of San Marcial takes first prize on White Crested Black Polish

Dr. Kaster has some fine birds on exhibition among which are a pair of Partridge Cochins, a pen of Pit Games and Wm. Farr exhibits a quantity of foods obtainable for laying hens.

"The Chicago Lady Quartette," says the New Mexican, "will appear at the court house in Santa Fe on Thursday evening, Jan. 23. Do not fail to hear this popular quartetle, assisted by Miss Nettle Jackson, an impersonator and a true exponent of the Delsarte sys-tem of expression." It is learned to-day that they are coming this way, and will appear in this city, on Jan. 24.

The La Junta Daily Watermelon thus speaks of Rev. H. W. Rankin's work in that place: "The union revival meetings in the city are meeting with great suc-cess. The church is crowded every night, and great interest is manifested. As an evangelist, Rev. Rankin is a great suc-cess. Mr. Rankin will begin his work in cess." Muster and Banquet.

Ex reference to another column it will be seen that a new secret lodge, known as Canton Rio Grande, No. 2, Patriarchs Militant, Independent Order of Old Fellows, was organized and mustered into service last night.
Lieutenant Colonel H. H. Tilton, who came here from the east as the muster-ing officer, with a committee of local odd Fellows, decided upon a list of representa-tive citizens whom they wished to attend the banquet, which usually follows the organization of such worthy and honorable lodges, and a few days ago personally called upon their guests and requested them to meet at Dr. Wroth's office and rom there, at a certain bour, march to the banquet room The banquet took place last night at the Highland Cafe; it was an elevating, no-ble and moral affair; it is on such oscasions that the mind becomes imbued with pure thought, and where men meet, not to have a "high old time," but to draw them-selves closer in the bonds of fraternal friendship. The clergy of the city were there; the doctors were there, and other good people were there, some not members of secret isiges, but they were invited, personally by Lieut. Col. Tilton, F. G. Pratt and oth-ers, and did not wish to miss such a treat, which seldom comes to the life of those outside of the lodges, and especially to those who have aspirations and desires to build themselves up morally.

It was an honor to receive an invitata-tion, and THE CITIZEN wishes the Patriarchs Militant great success

Wool Growers Enter a Vigorous Kick Against Congressman Dingley.

Following is a copy of a letter forwarded vesterday by Hon. G. H. Wallace. of Las Vegas, to Judge William Lawrence president of the National Wool Growers association: LAS VEGAS, N. M. Jan. 6, 1896.

Hon. Wm. Lawrence, President National Wool tirowers' Association, Washington, DEAR SIR-When the wool growers of the west learned that the Hon. Nelson Dingley, jr., of Maine, had been made chairman of the ways and means committee of the fifty-fourth congress, their hope of relief from legislation by this congress well-nigh fled. They felt that the manu-facturers of the east were "in the saddle," and "the Shepherd Kings" would again be condemned to exist by consuming their own substance and furnishing blood for others. Their forebodings have been ful-filled by the hasty legislation for the increase of the revenue. The Dingley bill now in the senate, is but a promise to the ear and, judging by results, 6.6 cents on wool in the new tariff, will be as easily evaded as was the 11 cents under the old law. There is but one way to secure pro-tection for wool growers, and that is not any high rate of duty with provisions for its evasion, but a moderate, specific rate, explicit, determinate clear, unreserved, explicit, determinate clear, unreserved, without distinction or discrimination whatever, upon every pound of wool or hair of the sheep, camel, goat, alpace or other like animals, that may be used in the manufacture of clothing, carpets, blankets, or other like material, imported into the United States.

The wool growers of the west most heartily endorse the movement to protest

Then she knows what is the matter, but she won't go to a doctor because she knows he will insist on "examinations" and "local treatment?" She goes on, with increasing suffering, until life itself becomes a drag. Nervousness, "ainking spells," digestive disturbances, and fifty other complications may arise from the same cause. Prequently such symptoms are treated as digestive diseases when the root of the whole matter is the derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Over thirty years ago, the need for a reliable remedy for so-called female complaints," was recognised by Dr. R. V. Pierce, then, as now, chief consulting physician to the World's Dispensary and Isvalids' Hotel, at Buffalo, N. V. He prepared Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the most wonderfully effective remedy that has ever been used for such maladies. Its sale now exceeds the combined sales of all other medicines for women. Its effect is perceptible almost immediately. It relieves pain, allays inflammation, checks debilitating drains, and quickly subdues other distressing symptoms. It makes the organs and their surrounding tissues strong and healthy, thereby correcting displacements and invigorating the whole body. termination at the noon hour with in-structions to return a scaled verdict and
